

CPFA's "CAN WE TALK?"

Join us for a FREE VIRTUAL support group session via Zoom, Friday, May 2, 8:00-9:30 pm EST

"Preparing for the Launch - School and Life"* with Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist and Pediatrician, Dr. Jane Aronson sponsored by Concerned Persons for Adoption

Dr. Aronson's discussion will be on the school environment and creating shared commitments and goals for your child with their teachers. The conversation will include sensitivity and tolerance, school supports, advocacy, and more with the goal of preparing your child for further education and independence.

As an adoptive parent, Dr. Aronson offers a unique perspective on how we can assist our children navigate school situations and coach them to advocate for themselves. Take this opportunity to ask questions, share your thoughts and concerns. Resources and ideas will be shared with those who attend.

Register here through May 1:

CPFA offers great opportunities to network with other adoptive/pre-adoptive parents. CPFA is a volunteer organization working to support those who wish to adopt and provides educational and networking resources to those who have adopted. Membership is encouraged and is open to anyone concerned with adoption.
